AN AFFAIR TO REMEMBER

What a tremendous show the LAG/BAA turned out to be this year. We had 88 entries and over 350 pieces of the highest quality art in the surrounding area. We have a very talented group of artists and are really excited about the success of the show. Sales amounted to over $5,000.00 which was an even bigger success this year.

Thank you to all the wonderful volunteers who helped to make this another great show. We couldn't do it without you. As you know, there is a great deal of work that goes on behind the scenes to make these shows a possibility. Your help is always welcome.

Most of all, a huge THANK YOU goes to our President, JOAN RHODES. Without her patience, attitude, organizational skills, and all the valuable time and effort she so generously contributed, this show would not have been possible. She is to be commended for all of her hard work. We really appreciate everything you did, Joan. THANK YOU, JOAN.

Also, THANK YOU to Diana Tripp for organizing all the working force for the show. THANK YOU to Ron Gallegos for obtaining donations of food from various caterers. THANK YOU to Janis Buck for organizing and managing the rest of the refreshments. THANK YOU to Michel Reynolds for publishing the handbook of the artists. THANK YOU to Jan Rhinehart and Yvonne Ogg for all the accounting.

THANK YOU one and all.

SEE YOU ALL NEXT YEAR FOR ANOTHER GREAT SHOW

Yvonne Ogg

MEMBER NEWS

Becky Everitt went to Spain in May for a 7-day pastel workshop. Her paintings of Spain will be at the Great Frame Up from July 8th through August 7th. She also finished some watercolors at home from photos. She reports that of all the places she has traveled to, Spain was definitely the most enjoyable. She was also in Chama, NM for a week while Chuck was finishing up work on restoring an old caboose for the Cumbres-Toltec Historic Railroad. She did some oil painting there and finished 2 paintings of the train. Becky will be showing work at Barnes & Noble in Loveland during August, and has 2 paintings in the Lincoln Gallery Show in Loveland. She also has an ad in the June issue of the Art Collector's Magazine with a pastel painting of Longs Peak.

Judy Sprague was awarded 3rd Place in Mixed Media at Thompson Valley Art League's Summer Show, juried by Robert Spooner. Her summer is busy as she was recently "Featured Artist" at Rijks Gallery in Crested Butte Colorado plus she will be exhibiting in Longmont at "Rhythm on the River's" Art Zone July 10.

Margaret Bobb participated in the Lyons Studio Tour on June 5 and 6 as part of a group that showed at Ciatano Winery, and the next week she was in the BAA/LAG member's show at the Fairgrounds. She has started painting plein air with the Plein Air Painters of Estes Park facilitated by Margaret Jensen, and she continues to go out some with the Boulder group facilitated by Nyla Witmore. She reports that both are wonderful groups, and she has learned a lot during the critique sessions. Both groups are free, and she would highly recommend either one to anyone interested in painting plein air. On July 10, she will be sharing a space in the Art Zone with several other artists at Rhythm on the River.

Diane Wood currently has artwork at the Millineum in Boulder. A reception will be held on July 29 from 6:30 pm to 8:00 pm. Food is excellent, please drop by and say hello. She also currently have 12 paintings at the Sun Roses Cafe on Main St. in Longmont. She has a painting that was juried in to the Gilpin Art Gallery across from the Teller House in Central City, and she has 22 paintings at the Longmont United Hospital Artwalk through July 14. She has paintings at North Boulder Rec for the month of July in the Gymnastics Hallway. Diane will be at Simply Bulk 418 Main St., Longmont for the July 16 Art Link; she will have paintings at Cafe Luna for the month of August; and she will be at Rhythm on the River July 10th in the Art Zone tent. Diane will hold a workshop at the Longmont Senior Center July 19 at 9 am. This workshop is thru the Outreach Program of Longmont Studio Tour and is free to the community. All materials supplied. Please sign up thru the Senior Center. She will hold a workshop at the Longmont Museum and Cultural Center August 14 from 10am to 12 noon. This is also thru Outreach Longmont Studio Tour and is open and free to the community. All materials supplied. Can accommodate 10 people. Please call me, Diane Wood, 303-678-7456 to sign up.

Rose Lynch won First Place acrylics in LAG/BAA; she is showing paintings at CORE Gallery in Denver, Osmosis Gallery in Niwot, and Lincoln Gallery in Loveland.

Craig MacCambridge reports that MacCambridge Photography now has a web site, it is still being worked on but there are photo's posted there. www.maccambridgephotography.com

Lillian Kennedy is painting and teaching in Vermont. You can follow her blog at www.lilliankennedy.com. She will resume her Boulder drop-in classes in mid August. Lillian is offering a four day acrylic plein air and studio workshop in Boulder through www.TravellingPalette.com in Sept. that will provide a great opportunity to have fun while developing your style as you jump your work to a new level through intense focus.

Sally Fulton has been painting up in Evergreen with Don Sahli, learning new ways to paint. In September when she will be in Richard Schmid's live auction up Rist Canyon on Labor Day and the Longmont Open Studios Tour Sept. 25-26. She is still teaching two classes through the summer on Wednesdays 2-5:00 and Thursdays 11-2:00 in her home studio and will take anyone who wants to give it a try. She will also teach a free pastel class (landscape) for beginners at the Longmont Museum September 18th 10:00-1:00. Interested persons can call her at 303 776-7761 or email her at SallyLFulton@comcast.net.

Donna Flebbe has been painting with Molly Davis in Boulder. She teaches a year long watercolor class on Fridays. She says that her joy has been painting with good friends and doing plein air. They have been up in the mountains and at several parks in the area. She is anxiously awaiting for her acceptance letter from the National Fine Art Show in Louisville. Donna says that being part owner of pARTiculars Lafayette Art Market has been very satisfying for her. A perfect use of her time in retirement. Her work has been well received by customers and several pieces have sold. She teaches classes in pastel collage and children's classes in their new classroom as well. Her plans are to continue teaching at her studio and at pARTiculars and of course "Keep On Painting".

Hersch Pilloff took a Bush Pilot Photo Trip to Homer, Alaska. He reports that it was a terrific trip and a great photo experience; and now the really hard work begins as the 275 photos need to be edited down to 25 or 30 of the best and most interesting shots. These extensive shots have the potential to be very special as they reflect the special grandeur of the glaciers and the potential threat of global warming.

Brice Harbert has 7 black and white photographic prints in an exhibit titled "A Grand Affair" at the Ciao Gallery, 66 S. Glenwood, Jackson, Wyoming. The exhibit runs from June 17 through July 15. He has also been accepted as a regular exhibitor in the Ciao Gallery after the current exhibit ends.

Welcome new members: Nancy Champion and Brigette Hennig

Suzanne Frazier is teaching several interesting workshops. A Saturday Contemplative Art Workshop on Saturday, August 14 from 10 am to 4 pm at her studio in Prospect; "Drawing Your Personal Mandala: An Introductory Oil Pastel Drawing Workshop" at the Longmont Museum and Cultural Center on Saturday, Sept. 4 from 10 am to Noon; a weekend art retreat at the Abbey of St Walburga in Virginia Dale Colorado on September 17-19, called "Drawing Your Spiritual Container: A Contemplative Art Retreat"; and a Saturday Contemplative Art Workshop on Saturday, October 2 from 9:30 am to 4 pm at the Broomfield Library. More information on the LAG website or contact Suzanne 303-502-0751 or suzanne@suzannefrazier.com

Heather Coen has a painting "Lake Helene" which was juried into the Plein Air Artists of Colorado (PAAC) National show at Sak's Gallery in Cherry Creek. The show closes next Saturday. The July issue of "American Art Collector" has her as a featured artist on page 182. The article called "Nature's Allure" stemmed from the editor picking her work from the previous month's issue when she was interviewed for the PAAC show mentioned above. She also had an opening at the Ciao Gallery in Jackson Hole, Wyoming on June 17th, 2010. That show runs through July 10th. She was selected for the Wyoming Plein Air Event beginning August 1st in Cheyenne, WY. The artists have 15 days to create paintings anywhere in Wyoming as long as they are done in the plein air tradition. The show is hosted by Southwest Art and the Deselms and Link Gallery in Cheyenne.

Kate Demke has been invited to participate in a show July 9 - 31 at Midtown Gallery in downtown Kalamazoo, MI.

Lori Kutz, David Daignault and Lynn Daignault have their art work hanging in the Gilpin Art Associations Annual Show at the Gilpin Art Gallery in Central City. The show will be open until August 14th. David received an honorable mention for one of his photos. The gallery is on Eureka Street right across the street from the Old Opera House.

Hazel McCoy, Lori Kutz and David Daignault, and have their photography hanging at the Bella Rosa Country Club in Frederick for the Frederick Photography Show until July 19th.

Barbara Gittelson, Pat Houston, Lori Kutz, Lynn Daignault, Lisa Lahrs and David Daignault will be going on a pleine air / photo op excursion this Thursday morning, the 8th of July, at the Union Reservoir, beginning at 8:00 AM. We hope to be totally inspired and return home with many great ideas and beginnings of new works.

Marcy Van Peursem has been back at painting classes with Dorothy Pecina. Also am planning on entering 2 paintings at the Lafayette Sr. Services Art Show starting August 2nd thru 19th. The Art will also be shown on Aug. 20th at Festival Plaza for "Art Night Out" 6 - 9:30 p.m. There will be a Reception Friday Aug. 20th at 6:30 - 8:00 p.m. during the Art Show 309 S Public Rd.

Dee Martella had a few classes with Don Stahl.

Barbara Ekx says, "I felt honored to take a 1st First and a Best of Show for the St Stephens show . Then I received the Judges Award as well as a 1st place for the BAA / LAG Show. I fell and broke my left elbow...so haven't done much painting." It's our loss!

Dot Pecina will be doing demos at the Firehouse Art Gallery in Longmont on July 17th & Aug 7th from 11 - 1 pm, and she will be showing at the Burlington Center, 205 Main St, Longmont from July 21 - Nov. 17th. She wants everyone to know her new website address is www.NoFearOil.com
